

Russell Bros.
Big Circus
Coming Here

Russell Brothers stream-lined Pan-Pacific Circus will roll into Redwood City Tuesday morning, May 27 from San Mateo for a one-night stand. Complete with tight-rope walkers, acrobats, trained bears and dogs, clowns, elephants, "Big Top" band and scores of other features, the circus will hold two performances at their Broadway and Chestnut St. grounds, at 3 and 8 p.m.

Dan Dix, veteran 24-hour man for the Big Show, is supervising the work of making the lot and its approaches ready for the crowds. Dix is also concerned with the crossings on the Southern Pacific sidings from which teams of elephants and crews of workmen must unload the bright cavalcade.

Staged by Barbet, famous stage director and big top producer, this year's circus has added new and streamlined features. New animals highlighted will be Pallenberg's Wonder Bears, educated bears on roller skates, scooters, bicycles and motorcycles.

For the convenience of the public, tickets are on sale at Baird's Drug Store, El Camino and Broadway and will also be sold on the grounds. Doors will open at 2 and 7 p.m. so that people may leisurely inspect the horse fair and menagerie.

The show will feature the Riding Cristiani family in unusual equestrian feats; new inaugural pageant; the Flying Concellos with Antoinette, girl flyer; All-Girl Cloud Ballet; La Louisa, renowned "Queen of Aerial Rhythm"; Ala Ming Fu, reported to be the only girl to accomplish forward somersaults on the wire; The Ortans, whirlwind scrobbats; The Konyots, dressage riders; The Arturos and their performing horses and ponies; The Davises and Excellos, high perch daredevils.

The Corcaits, Doritas and Belmontes in new thrillers; a Convention of Clowns, herd of performing elephants in different routines; Henry Kyes, "the Paul Whitman of the big top" and his wonder band and the combined menagerie and horse fair also are included.

Patrice Munsel
To Appear Sunday

The Bay Area will have its first opportunity to meet and hear Patrice Munsel, the sensational young coloratura soprano from Spokane, Wash., who became a Metropolitan Opera star at the age of 17.

The "baby of the Met," whose slender brunette beauty has been celebrated almost as enthusiastically as her extraordinary voice, will arrive here on Sunday afternoon for a concert at the Opera House under the local sponsorship of California Concerts.

Winner of a Metropolitan Audition of the Air, the only daughter of a successful dentist was the youngest singer ever to enter the hallowed halls of the Metropolitan. She made her debut in the taxing Philine in "Ignon," and her singing of the brilliant coloratura aria, "Je suis Titania," high point of the opera, held the performance at a standstill for eight minutes while the jammed opera house expressed its enthusiasm.

She later sang the part of the doll Olympia in "Tales of Hoffman" and Gilda in "Rigoletto," and appeared on numerous leading radio hours including "March of Time," "Cavalade of America," RCA-Victor and "Voice of Firestone." This season she began a four-year assignment as permanent star of the weekly "Family Hour" of the Prudential Life Insurance Co.

Currently Miss Munsel is appearing in some 30 cities, in the course of her second concert season. She will return to New York in December to take up her duties at the Metropolitan.

Romildo Visconte
Of Woodside Honored

Posthumous award of the Distinguished Flying Cross with Oak Leaf Cluster and the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters to Capt. Romildo Visconte of Woodside was made at Hamilton Field Saturday.

Joseph Visconte, father of the fighter pilot who was credited with bagging nine Nazi planes, received the medals from Col. Charles R. Melin, commanding officer of the field.

Captain Visconte was shot down over France in December, 1944. Sequoia High School graduate, Captain Visconte is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Visconte of Mountain Home Rd., Woodside.

2500 Homes
For S.F., S.M.
Counties

Building priorities for non-war workers were lifted today when the National Housing Administration announced that 2500 new homes may be built in San Mateo and San Francisco Counties, and that individual builders must apply to the Federal Housing Authority in San Francisco under a "first come, first serve" arrangement.

Homes must not cost over $7500 and the maximum monthly rental will be $65. Previously in the defense dwellings built, homes could not sell for more than $6000 or rent for over $50 monthly. Seventeen per cent of the homes built must go on the rental market, the FHA in San Francisco said Monday.

The 2500 homes to be built on the Peninsula will not be distributed equally to any one area but will be allocated according to the first applications received, the FHA explained. Primary purpose of the building program is to relieve congestion in central areas.

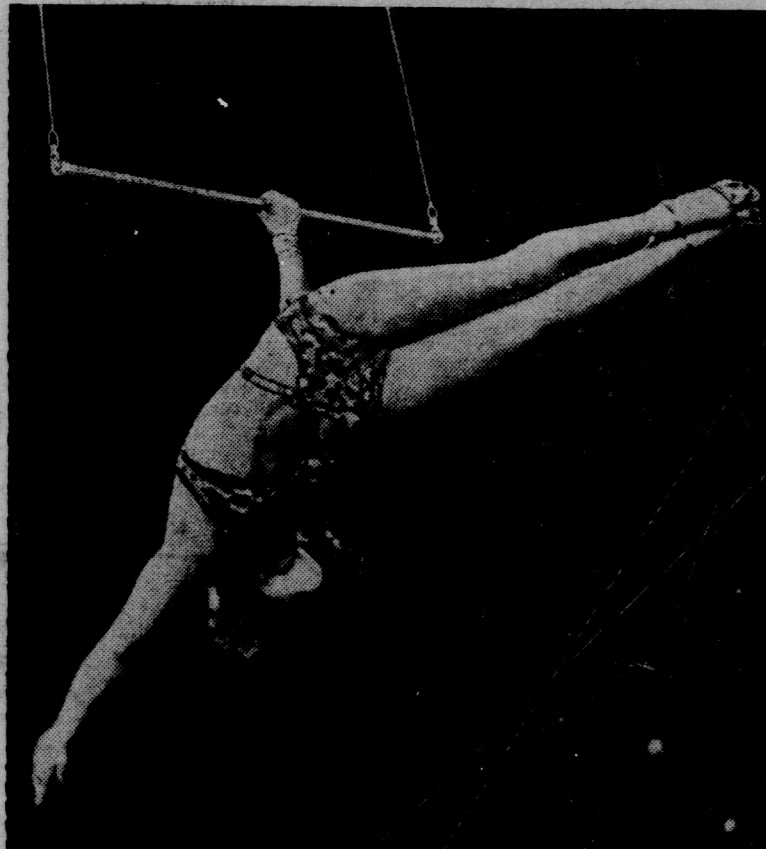

Secondary reason is to help private building concerns get back "on their feet" so that they will be prepared to handle the huge demand for new housing after the war.

A third reason given by the FHA for the first building allowed since the beginning of the war for other than war workers is that the increased program will attempt to break the inflationary prices of real estate at the present time.

Construction of the 5000 other homes allocated in the Bay Area is as follows: Alameda County, 2500; Marin County, 750; North Bay Area, 750; San Pablo Bay Area, 250 and Suisun Bay Area, 250.

Meanwhile in Los Angeles more than 400 hopeful home builders, some of whom had waited in line for more than 78 hours, filed into the FHA office today to apply for remission to construct moderate low cost dwellings.

William Libby
Dies After Illness

William E. Libby, well-known in local dramatic groups, died Monday night at Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo at the age of 24. He had suffered from an incurable disease for the past three years.

Mr. Libby served as make-up artist for the San Francisco Opera House productions and was taking a course in make-up at the Pasadena Play House this Spring when illness forced him to return to Redwood City. Born in Berkeley on May 25, 1920, Mr. Libby moved here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Libby and sister, Fay, 18 years ago.

He graduated from Sequoia High School in June, 1939, and in December, 1944, was elected one of the directors of the Sequoia Alumni Association. Prior to entering the army air corps on Dec. 6, 1940, he attended San Mateo Junior College where he was active in dramatic productions.

He was discharged from the army on Mar. 6, 1942. Mr. Libby is also survived by a nephew, Stephen J. Cullen; his grandfather, Edward C. Howlett of Redwood City and an aunt, Gertrude Blum of Portland, Ore.

Redwood City Post 105 American Legion conducted memorial services at the Layng and Tinney Funeral Home Tuesday at 8 o'clock.

Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Schuyler Pratt, Thursday, at 12:45 p.m. Interment will follow at the Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Five Miles
Of Sidewalks
Ordered Here

Bids totaling $35,721.93 for construction of nearly five miles of sidewalks were accepted by the Redwood City council Monday night and contracts are expected to be negotiated within the next few days.

A bid of $10,774.21 from R. G. Clifford was low for work to be done in Unit 1 which includes installation of sidewalks in the Hudson St. and Clinton St. areas of the program.

M. Weber submitted low bids for the other three units. For Unit 2, he bid $6661.41; Unit 3, $8762.39; and Unit 4, $9623.92.

Work on the improvement program, which also includes installation of 2831 feet of curbs and gutters and 600 feet of asphaltic sidewalks, is expected to be completed by early fall.

Pete Sorensen, Redwood City contractor who was present when bids were opened, objected to the bids from Weber on grounds that the bond accompanying the bid was not satisfactory.

City Atty. Paul A. McCarthy upheld the accompanying bond, however.

day, at 12:45 p.m. Interment will follow at the Golden Gate National Cemetery.

City's Tax Rate May Be Lowered

By NITA REIFSCHEIDER

Tax rate for the City of Redwood City will be $.0521 less for the fiscal year 1945-46, according to a preliminary budget presented to the council by City Mgr. Robert W. Mead last night.

The decrease, from last year's rate of $1.49, was made possible in spite of overall salary increases which will add more than $16,000 to city payrolls, purchase of two new fire trucks and establishment of a $7500 equipment replacement fund, Mead said.

Budget requirements for the coming year total $400,997.23 or an increase of $15,103.37 over the 1944-45 budget.

The new tax rate of $1.4379 was made possible by several factors, Mead explained.

Discontinuance of a five cent special levy for postwar development which has been added to the tax rate for the past two years greatly contributed to the lowering of the rate, he said, while increased valuation and a larger fund of cash on hand also made possible the decrease.

A decrease of $11,081.08 for retirement and interest of bonds was also a major item in lowering the tax rate, he continued.

Increase in departmental and general requirements in the new budget total $33,440.07, while $1465.22 was added to the library requirements, his budget stated.

Assessed valuation was set at $17,723,229, which represented an increase of approximately $114,000 over the preceding year.

All city employees receive 10 per cent salary boosts for the coming year, and several new positions have been set up for the police and fire departments. Money set up for salaries shows an increase of approximately $29,000 over last year's budget.

The city engineer's department was the only account to show a decrease from last year's budget appropriation. For general purposes, $4230 or $695 less than 1944-45 has been set up in the engineer's budget account.

Largest departmental increase was in the fire department where $14,731.55, of which more than $9000 is for salaries, was added to last year's appropriation of $39,330.65.

An increase of $727.10—more than $6000 of which is for salaries—is noted in the police department account which sets up $85,887.10 for the coming year.

The sum of $4176 is earmarked for two new 1000 gpm pumps to be added to the fire department on a lease purchase contract.

Following presentation of the budget to the council, Councilman Floyd Granger presented a prepared statement for City Clerk Dodge to read, in which the councilman stated his opposition to a salary increase for the city manager.

Granger reviewed past salary increases for Mead and charged the city manager with defying the city charter by not moving to Redwood City from his Palo Alto residence.

Granger accused Mead of presenting an "apparent complimentary rent receipt" at a past council meeting in order to prove residence in Redwood City.

He compared Mead's salary with those of other city managers in the Bay Area and concluded his statement by asking, "Can any member of the city council justify his actions in supporting this perpetual outlay for the city manager?"

His statement met with no comment from the other councilmen or Mead.

Pictures of R. C. Library Asked

Following a special request from the Inter-American Office of the National Gallery of Art, Smithsonian Institution, the Redwood City Public Library has sent on pictures of the library's interior to be used by South American countries.

Miss Wilhelmina Harper, librarian, reported today that the Inter-American Office recently received an urgent request from the National Library of Uruguay for photographs of modern, well equipped libraries in the United States. The Redwood City library, as one of the few smaller libraries chosen, was especially honored by this request, Miss Harper said.

Charles Gatchel Flies the Hump

One of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. D. Fred Gatchel 176 Duane St., is now flying over the famous Hump in India, and a second has left for training with the army air corps in Mississippi.

Lt. Charles W. Gatchel, who is now flying an army transport C-46 in India, has been stationed at an army base in India since early in April. He reports that his air strip is at the edge of a jungle, and that he and his crew live in a thatched roof building.

For the past year Lieutenant Gatchel has been in the transport service, and prior to his assignment he was an instructor at the Stockton Army Air Base and at Randolph Field, Tex.

Richard H. Gatchel, second son of the D. F. Gatchels, left last week for Camp Beale, where he was inducted into the army. He was transferred from there to Keesler Field, Miss., where he will begin his training with the army air corps.

Private Gatchel for the past nine months has been with the Army Specialized Training School at Missoula, Mont., and at Stanford University. He graduated from Sequoia High School in June, 1944.

Both air corpsmen are grandsons of the Rev. Charles H. Gatchell, pastor emeritus of the First Baptist Church here, and Mrs. Gatchell.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Climaxing the pre-vacation activities for scouts of the San Mateo County Council was the Camp-o-ree staged at Flood Park, near Atherton, on May 19 and 20.

Under the direction of J. V. Christie, council scout commissioner, who served as chairman for the event, assisted by John Linden and Dan Minto of the council camp committee, the two-day camp provided a program of scouting events and camping technique of a high standard.

Acting in various directional capacities as the program progressed were W. P. Stevens as contest chairman; first aid director, Joe Aliamus; Bert Werder, Chet E. Wilson, Ralph Brill, W. Britschgi, C. K. Eisler, Stan Marcus and Fred Benoit.

George Cook, commissioner of the southern district, served as officer of the day. Members of the Knights of Dunamis, honorary Eagle Scout fraternity, assisted in the setting-up and conduct of the camp program. E. A. Barrer, scout executive, served as technical adviser.

On Sunday morning Reverend Father McKee of Redwood City conducted services for Catholic scouts. Protestant services were under the direction of W. P. Stevens, with C. K. Eisler reading Christian Science services.

Representing the communities of South San Francisco, San Bruno, Millbrae, Burlingame, Hillsborough, San Mateo, Belmont, San Carlos, Woodside, Redwood City, East Palo Alto, Menlo Park and Atherton were some 40 Scout troops with a total enrollment well in excess of 1500.

Feature of the Saturday program was the evening campfire under the direction of Chet E. Wilson, assistant scout executive. A large crowd of onlookers, estimated at 500 persons saw a varied program of skits, songs and stunts put on by both scouts and leaders. Every kind of presentation was given for the pleasure of the group. Musical numbers, group singing, pantomimes and specially prepared stunts were featured.

For the closing ceremonies the awards for proficiency in camping skill and ratings in contest events were given. They were as follows:

"A" Troop Ratings: Troops 1, 11, 12, 32, 35, 48, 83, 85, 100, 101, 117, 142, 143, 147, 149, 152, 153, 154, 156, 159, 160 and 161 "B" Troop Ratings went to Troops 23, 70, 72, 80, 92, 103, 104, 105, 107, 108, 120, 157, 162, 163 and 151.

E. A. Barrer, scout executive, in closing the encampment stated that the event was the best of its kind in the history of the San Mateo County Council. He paid tribute to the fine work of the scoutmaster and praised the high standard of excellence demonstrated throughout the camp.

Dibble Patients Given Automobile

A 1942 Dodge sedan in which soldier patients handicapped by war wounds, will be taught safe driving, was presented to Dibble General Hospital Monday afternoon by the American Legion Auxiliary of the State of California.

The car is one of five presented to California army hospitals by the auxiliary. They will be used by the hospitals' reconditioning sections in the training of patients whose disabilities may be a handicap to safe driving. At Dibble, one of the nation's two blind centers, the car will be used chiefly by men who have lost the sight of one eye.

The patients will be taught safe driving by Red Cross Motor Corps drivers under the direction of Mrs. Martha Barrows, Dibble field director. At Monday's ceremony, the motor corps was represented by Mrs. C. F. Salz of Palo Alto, motor corps co-ordinator at Dibble; Mrs. D. W. Brichta of Palo Alto, Mrs. John Copelin, Redwood City, and Mrs. C. E. Bash, Menlo Park.

J-M Smokestack By Jim Asbestos

AND I THOUGHT JOHNS-MANVILLE WAS JUST A ROOF OVER MY HEAD

MAN, J-M SERVES YOU ALMOST EVERY MINUTE OF YOUR LIFE

Through Your Day With J-M Products

There's hardly a minute of your day when you are not getting some good out of some Johns-Manville product, either directly or indirectly.

When you shave in the morning, you use a razor blade which probably was annealed in a furnace insulated with J-M materials.

Your hot water probably comes from a storage tank with J-M insulation, and maybe arrived at your house through J-M Transite pipe.

In winter, your heat may come from a furnace insulated by J-M, through pipes insulated by J-M.

Your house may be warmer in winter and cooler in summer because it is protected by J-M home insulation. In storms, you're dry because your house may have J-M shingles and siding.

Your breakfast toaster cord may be insulated with J-M asbestos.

Your gas or electric range oven, and your refrigerator, may be J-M insulated.

The car you drive to work may have J-M asbestos brake-blocks, clutch facings and motor gaskets. The elevator at your place of work may have J-M asbestos friction materials in its hoisting mechanism.

Hour by Hour

If you work in an office the floor may be J-M asphalt floor tile. The clatter of typewriters is perhaps quieted by J-M sound control materials.

MY GOSH! IT'S A JOHNS-MANVILLE WORLD!

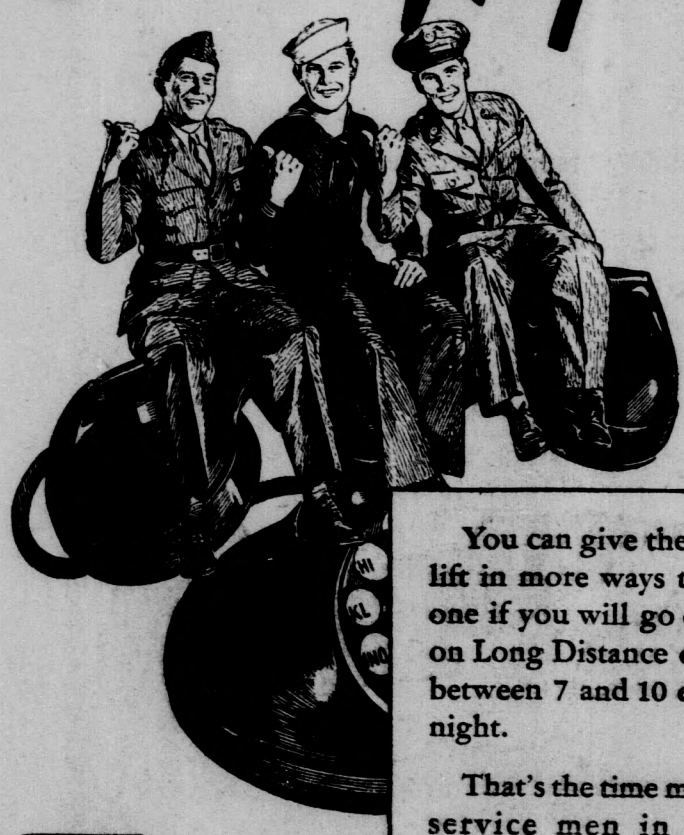

At dinner, your sugar was probably filtered through J-M Celite. Also your wine or beer. And your clothes were cleaned by a dry cleaner who probably filtered his cleaning fluids through J-M Celite filter-aids.

If you go to the theatre in the evening, the curtain is no doubt of J-M ASBESTOS.

News of Commuters

BY JOE CAROUSE

This week is National Foreign Trade Week, and Tuesday, May 22, was National Maritime Day. Two few Americans know about Foreign Trade Week and Maritime Day, and their respective significance to our national economy and security. Tuesday commemorated the anniversary of the first crossing of the North Atlantic by steamboat, marking the day the S.S. Savannah sailed from Savannah, Ga., for England and return.

We celebrate May 22 as National Maritime Day by presidential proclamation to focus public attention on what our merchant marine means to us as an instrument of national security, both in war and in peace. It is of special significance this year as we contemplate the factors that brought about the defeat of the Axis in Europe and which are now inflicting mortal wounds on Japan.

Early in the war Admiral Land of the Maritime Commission said: "Ships will win the war!" America was turning out five merchant ships a day at the peak of production, and these ships literally did "win the war," or to put it more conservatively, the war could not have been won without America's colossal contribution of merchant ships. In a global war you can have the most powerful armies in the world, and the best equipped, but unless you can move the men and material to the scene of battle, you can't win the battle.

What's the point of celebrating National Maritime Day? Simply this: To impress upon John Q. Public that this time he must keep his merchant marine... and not scuttle it as he did at the close of World War I... the "war to end wars." We hope this truly will be the last big war. But we can't take that chance. We must keep prepared. And we are not prepared unless we maintain an adequate merchant marine, to serve our navy as auxiliary and to transport our cargoes, both in war and in peace. That's the meaning of National Maritime Day, and here's a

$3000 Stolen From S.M. Store

SAN MATEO — Three thousand dollars and all of Saturday's charge account sales slips were stolen Saturday night or early Sunday morning from Loewe & Zwieler, dry goods department store, at 317 B St., San Mateo, according to San Mateo police, who were informed of the loss early yesterday.

The money — $1000 in currency and $2000 in checks — and the charge slips had been secreted Saturday evening under a counter in the dry goods department, in an unlocked wooden money box by Emil Zwieler before he closed the store for the weekend.

Yesterday at 7:30 a.m. Angelo Mengini, of 819 Cypress Ave., San Mateo, janitor at the store, told police he had just found the empty money box on a rear counter of the store.

Saturday night at 10 o'clock, police officers found a rear door to the store open. They turned on the store lights, investigated, and reported everything in order, locking the door after their search.

Two Women Hurt In Crash Here

Two women were injured Monday at 10:36 p.m. when their automobile crashed into a telephone pole in front of Kelly's Tavern on Airport Sunday afternoon. San Mateo police reported today.

Estelle Allured, 47, of 243 Fuller St., Redwood City, was driver of the automobile, police said. Attendees at Palo Alto Hospital described her injuries as a fractured right arm and facial contusions.

Margaret O'Connor, 504 Roosevelt Ave., received facial lacerations in the crash and was still confined to the hospital today.

Both women were knocked unconscious in the collision which sheared away half of the car's front end.

salute to all the brave lads who man our ships everywhere!

Joe McClellan has been seldom seen in his usual haunts since he married (does make a difference, doesn't it, Joe?) and we had begun to wonder... whether our able "speakers bureau" was withdrawing himself from public life. Then came a letter from Joe, containing several clippings about commuters, and we knew he was "back on the beam." One item was clipped from a "vox pop" column in which the writer, a commuter, complained bitterly about the terrible traffic conditions in San Francisco. Funny, how many commuters gripe about that and yet wouldn't raise a finger to help correct it.

Another clipping from Joe states that commuters from the East Bay coming into San Francisco outnumber commuters from the Peninsula by better than 4 to 1. That surprised us a little. We would have guessed the ratio at something like 2 to 1. Both suffer equally from the inconvenience and discomforts of San Francisco's lack of adequate transportation. The tortures of the trip are augmented frequently by the cursing and abuse one has to take from the streetcar or bus crew. If a race riot ever starts in San Francisco we predict it will have its origin on a crowded streetcar or bus.

And for this service the city fathers suggest increasing the fare, so that "commuters will more equitably meet their share of the costs." An increased fare is not the solution. They could charge a dollar a head and the service would still be bad under the present management and the present limitation on physical equipment, and under the stubborn, archaic method of operation. Some day the long-suffering patrons, San Franciscans and commuters alike, will raise up on their hind legs and demand service. In the meantime, with the nice weather, try walking. And put your savings into war bonds!

Atherton Gardener Sues Bus Company

John Wilson, Atherton gardener who was a passenger in an automobile in which Jack Herbst was killed in a collision with a bus on Middlefield Rd. at Fair Oaks Ln. on Mar. 12, Tuesday filed suit in superior court here against Pacific Greyhound Lines and Raymond C. Banks for $50,000.

Wilson claimed he suffered numerous injuries in the accident. He also stated he was the sole support of an invalid wife, Anne.

Wilson was a gardener on Herbst's estate.

Mrs. North Asks Estate Letters

Mrs. Ann S. North, 325 Avila Rd., San Mateo, Tuesday filed a petition in superior court here for letters of administration of the estate of her husband, Reynolds Bacon North, who died Jan. 20 of this year in a Japanese prison camp in Manila.

The petition listed a salary claim against the Treasury Department by which North had been employed before his capture, of $14,281.58. He died intestate.

He was the father of Roger Reynolds North of the U. S. Army, and Jerome North, 13, of San Mateo.

Vernald Brown Home on Furlough

Aviation Cadet Vernald J. (Sammy) Brown is spending a two-week furlough with his wife, Doris, and daughter, Karen, at the home of his parents, the E. F. Chittenden in Emerald Lake, Enslitting in the army in April, 1944. Brown is now stationed at the Douglas, Ariz. Army Air Field.

He is a graduate of Sequoia High School and attended San Mateo Junior College. In July, he was chosen out of several hundred recruits for officers training.

No Liquor at Foresters' Council Rules

The city council of Redwood City cracked down on Foresters' Hall Monday, when councilmen voted to issue dance permits with the provision no liquor be sold on the premises.

Their action met with dissent from Councilman C. A. Britschgi who declared, "It won't accomplish anything." He cast the only no vote on the motion.

Police Chief C. L. Collins, replying to Councilman C. C. Armstrong, said his department had received reports of disturbances at the dance hall, but assured the council they were "not serious."

Armstrong asked about a recent disturbance at the hall involving several Hawaiians in from a ship at the Port of Redwood City and sailors which, he said, "lasted about an hour, I believe?"

"It was a disturbance in the street," replied Collins.

"The disturbance started at Foresters' Hall and it took seven policemen to stop it," retorted Armstrong.

The councilman reiterated his objections to dancing and drinking under the same roof and then moved the permit be granted with the understanding no liquor be sold on the premises.

Councilman George McNulty came to the defense of the dance operators.

"I'll neither vote for nor second such a motion," McNulty blurted, "dance hall for the disturbances," he declared.

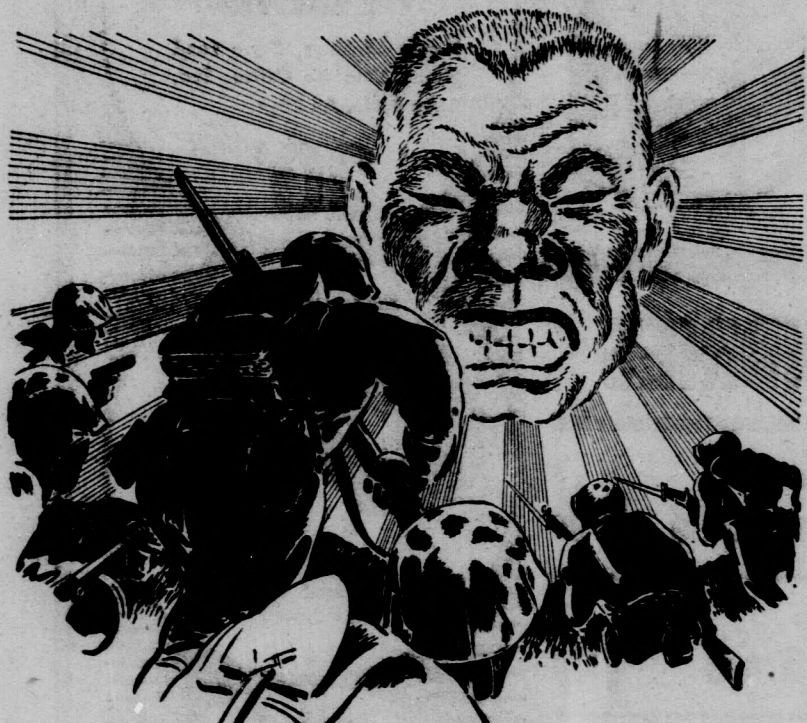

R. C. Flight Wins CAP Drill Contest

Redwood City Flight, Civil Air Patrol, won first place in the competitive drill held at the Palo Alto Airport Sunday afternoon. San Mateo Flight took second; the All-Girl Flight was third and San Jose placed fourth.

Lieutenant Colonel Fediger of the San Francisco Postoffice and Lt. A. M. Wise, commanding officer of the Peninsula squadron, C.A.P., were judges of the drill.

A former retreat ceremony was held at 4 p.m. During the day more than 50 civilians were given free rides in the army plane given to the C.A.P. Movies of Russia and the bombing of Tokyo were shown at the airport.

Menlo Council Adopts Civil Service Ordinance

The refusal to change the ordinance to permit the Union Oil Co. to erect a service station on the northwest corner of El Camino and Santa Cruz Ave., and adoption of the ordinance to place all city employees under civil service were the two major items on the agenda at Tuesday night's meeting of the Menlo Park City Council.

The council lost little time in voting unanimously against the proposal to erect a service station on the used car lot opposite the city hall after hearing protests from the chamber of commerce and several taxpayers. C. V. Christensen represented the Union Oil Co. at the meeting.

A lively discussion was held on the civil service ordinance before the council finally voted their approval. Several members of the audience voiced their disapproval of including all department heads in the ordinance. Mayor Donald Fisher and Police Commr. Lloyd Neumann were outspoken in their demands that the chief of police and other department heads be protected from dismissal by the whims of every new administration.

Street Commr. Charles Burgess reported that Pine and Cherry Sts. were being resurfaced. He added that this was the first step in the recently announced long-range program of the department to improve the city streets.

Commissioner Burgess requested and received permission to seek the cost of taking a census in Menlo Park. He stated that a sufficient increase in population would enable the city to file for a larger share of the state gasoline tax funds.

Jim Blessing appeared before the council for street lights for the residents on Johnson Ave. Mayor Donald Fisher suggested that Councilman Roy Gray make a survey of the situation.

The council approved the proposal to file legal notice of the intentions of Menlo Park to the annexation of the Brookdale tract.

A street improvement plan for the new subdivision area on the old Rosenfeld tract was approved by the council.

Royal Hodge, city health inspector, made a request for all persons with chickens to co-operate in the rodent control program. He pointed out that self-feeders left overnight in the chicken pens were feeding more rats than chickens.

The council agreed to adjourn until May 29 at 7:30 p.m.

Charge RC Laborer

Vernon L. Kristee, 29, was charged with drunken driving by Redwood City police who arrested him on the Woodside Rd. at midnight Tuesday.

Kristee, a laborer, resides at 4494 Fourth Ave., police said.

Armored Car, Grab Bag Featured in Bond Rally

An M-8 armored car manned by returned veterans of World War II; a grab bag featuring valued prizes for bond buyers, and 500 gardenias were promised today as features for the Redwood City Exchange Club's war bond street sale next Saturday.

James P. Hearne, chairman of the club's bond sale committee, promised that every bond buyer would have an equal chance for the war bond prizes, and guaranteed that a half case of Kleenex would be among the awards.

The club will man two bond booths Saturday afternoon, he announced, one on Broadway and the other on Main St.

"We hope to sell $50,000 worth of bonds," he announced.

Members of his committee include J. A. Buhler, Floyd McCue, Henry Nissen, C. J. Whitley, K. B. Towne, Al Davies, Dr. W. B. Langston, Edmond Scott, John Garland and H. E. Holmquist.

The 500 gardenias, one of which will be awarded to each bond buyer, will be provided by the Capitelli Nursery, Hearne announced.
